

Important Sale of Winter Coats

Blue Chinchilla Strap Back Coats, button close to neck, that ordinarily sell for $9.00; special. $5.00

Plaid Back Full Length Coats, patch pocket, braided bound, either in Oxford gray or black; priced usually at $18.50; special. $10.00

High Grade Germania Chinchilla Full Satin Lined Coats, in black, blue and brown, shipped to us on Wednesday with instructions to dispose of them. These are just such high grade Winter Coats as you usually pay $25.00 or $27.50 for; special. $15.00

See Corner Window Display of the Above.

Kaufmann Company

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Massie and Miss Ella Buck were hosts last night at one of the prettiest dancing parties given this year. The dance took place in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel and an orchestra played throughout the evening. The stage was banked with palms and bay trees and tall stands of pink roses were placed at intervals around the room. The windows and doorways being open, the air was fresh and the room was lighted with a soft glow of pink and white lights. The supper was served at 11 o'clock, the guests were seated at small tables decorated in winter vases of pink roses and the room was lighted with a soft glow of pink and white lights. The supper was served at 11 o'clock, the guests were seated at small tables decorated in winter vases of pink roses and the room was lighted with a soft glow of pink and white lights.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Massie and Miss Buck were Miss Mary Williams and Thomas C. Williams. Miss Williams wore a black spangled gown with a bouquet of orchids and Miss Buck was dressed in pale yellow champagne finished with French roses and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Williams wore an imported gown of silver tissue with a corsage bouquet of gardenias. Birthday Celebration.

One of the most interesting functions of the winter season was the reception given on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Riley at their home, 1804 Park Avenue. The occasion was the celebration of the seventieth birthday of Mr. Riley. Fifteen guests were invited to the Riley home to wish their many happy returns. It was a Cabell-Carrington rally and marked a gathering of the most exclusive of the winter season.

Dunlop Flour

Made in Richmond
The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET
MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

121-123-125 West Broad Street.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory

2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc.

1418-1420 E. Main Street.

Dreyfus & Co.

301 East Broad Street.
Special displays of new fall styles in Women's Apparel.

Stiff Pianos

Best players—the best made, at makers' prices.

Shades to Order at Ryan-Smith's

Below Profit Policy Store

The Velvet Kind

Same Quality Every Day.
PURE ICE CREAM.
Monroe 1961.

several weeks and a number of functions have been planned in her honor. Returned to Richmond.

Mrs. Herbert W. Jackson and her daughter, Miss Evelyn Hyman Jackson, have returned to Richmond, after attending the inauguration of Governor Craig in Raleigh, N. C. Mrs. Jackson and her daughter were honor guests at a great many handsome affairs during their stay in Raleigh, notable among which was a large reception given by their hosts, Mrs. James H. Poy, on last Friday night. Mrs. Poy visited Richmond earlier in the season and was one of the guests from a distance present at the debut reception of Miss Jackson here.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. William Hodges Mann has returned to the Executive Mansion, after a short visit to relatives in Petersburg.

Miss Mary Butler, of "Poplar Grove," Matthews County, is visiting here for a few days.

Mrs. J. B. Neff, of Staunton, who was operated on several days ago at the St. Elizabeth Hospital here, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Algernon Craven, of Albemarle, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atkinson, on West Franklin Street.

Mrs. J. B. Savage and Mrs. J. B. Adams, of this city, will leave Saturday for Roanoke, where they will visit Mr. John Antrim.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deford, who have been spending some time in Baltimore, are now at their country place near Luray, where they will remain until April.

Colonel Cole and Miss Alice Cole have returned to Fredericksburg, after spending a short time here.

Miss Ina Tenser, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Richardson at her home in Newport News.

Judge and Mrs. Edmund Waddill will return to Richmond to-morrow, after spending some time in Norfolk.

Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Barber, who have been spending a few days, have returned to Fredericksburg.

W. J. Moran of this city, and Miss Lillian Terrell of Norfolk, Va., were married in Washington, yesterday, and have gone on an extended northern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hamilton of 200 East Main Street are visiting in Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia and New York City. They expect to be gone about ten days.

CONCEAL STOLEN HOSIERY.

Baffled Sleuths Suggest "Ankle Inspectors" for Big Mills.

Riverside, N. J., January 23.—Male sleuths who have endeavored to stop wholesale thefts of costly silk and lisle hosiery from the great Tangle Mills here have gone as far as they dare in their investigation and now suggest the employment of female watchers with power as ankle inspectors. Thousands of dollars worth of the best hosiery manufactured at the mills are stolen annually, and the company has put forth futile efforts to stop the costly drain.

Numerous arrests have been made, but the offenders say this move fails to deter the thieves. They declare that women employees are the worst offenders, as they are able to conceal the loot in the most natural way.

Mrs. Mary Scabedick, an employee of the Tangle Mills, was arrested yesterday charged with stealing stockings. Before Justice of the Peace Zeigler, at her hearing, it was charged that she concealed ten pairs upon her person, when she left the place in the evening.

MRS. BENNETT SAYS "PUBLISH"

Thinks Her Letter Made Public, Might Result in Some Good. All Ladies Should Read.

Henderson, Tex.—In a letter from this place Mrs. T. V. Bennett says: "Last November I was taken very sick and had two doctors. They doctor me for most everything that could be thought of, and at last they told me it would be necessary to have an operation. I couldn't give in to this, although I was suffering great pain.

Finally I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't used it but a short time before I was up, feeling good and able to do my work.

I am still getting along fine, and can recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to all suffering women. I shall always praise this great medicine.

If you think my experience would be of any benefit to any suffering woman you are at liberty to publish it."

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is strictly a woman's medicine, made up of pure, harmless vegetable ingredients which act directly on the womanly constitution.

It stimulates the weakened organs and helps build them up to health and strength.

We receive numerous letters every day similar to the one above. If it has benefited so many thousands of other women, why shouldn't it do the same for you?

Give Cardui a trial.

N. B.—Write to Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper.

Wedding Flowers

Of "guaranteed freshness" direct from our greenhouses. Cost no more. Phone for prices.

HAMMOND

Virginia's Largest Florist
Telephone Mad. 630

WEDDING BOARD MEETS.

Orders Increase of Room for Laboratory Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Kline College, executive board of trustees of Kline College held a business session last evening in the president's office. A large number of the new members of the board were present.

A movement is on foot in the town to have the local graded school turned into a practice school under the department of the state.

The school trustees at Kline College have reached a total of 30 in date, distributed as follows: Graduate department, 12; normal department, 17; collegiate department, 11.

THE ESCAPE MAY COST HIS PLACE

Sheriff Likely to Lose Job Because He Let Esther Harris Get Away.

Riverhead, L. I., January 23.—Acting on a petition presented by the farmers of Riverhead, Governor Sulzer ordered Melville E. Brush, sheriff of Suffolk County, to appear before him and show cause why he should not be removed for incompetency and neglect of duty.

The sheriff to-day by S. Mathewall, who came down from Albany with the sheriff, who said the papers in his pocket and remarked that he would fight.

That is just what he has been doing ever since Esther Harris, charged with burglary, escaped from the $20,000 Riverhead jail last December, taking all her baggage and leaving the doors nearly locked behind her. Following the escape, in which an automobile figured, the sheriff was made that other prisoners were allowed to spend their time taking in the country and that they should have been doing their duty.

Mr. Brush's friends say the whole thing was a mistake. A Republican and nobody gives a Republican any more. His job is worth about $5,000 a year to him, and he said he will fight to hold it, if only for principle.

TAKE APPEAL AN ALEXANDRIA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Alexandria, Va., January 23.—The City Council to-night, by a vote of 12 to 2, decided to appeal the annexation case to the Supreme Court. The city of Alexandria, Va., is the only city in the United States that has done so.

HALHIMERS

Men's $1.00 and $1.25
Madras and Percale Shirts
pleated and soft bosom;
Sale Price,
67c

THE ESCAPE MAY COST HIS PLACE

Sheriff Likely to Lose Job Because He Let Esther Harris Get Away.

Riverhead, L. I., January 23.—Acting on a petition presented by the farmers of Riverhead, Governor Sulzer ordered Melville E. Brush, sheriff of Suffolk County, to appear before him and show cause why he should not be removed for incompetency and neglect of duty.

The sheriff to-day by S. Mathewall, who came down from Albany with the sheriff, who said the papers in his pocket and remarked that he would fight.

That is just what he has been doing ever since Esther Harris, charged with burglary, escaped from the $20,000 Riverhead jail last December, taking all her baggage and leaving the doors nearly locked behind her. Following the escape, in which an automobile figured, the sheriff was made that other prisoners were allowed to spend their time taking in the country and that they should have been doing their duty.

Mr. Brush's friends say the whole thing was a mistake. A Republican and nobody gives a Republican any more. His job is worth about $5,000 a year to him, and he said he will fight to hold it, if only for principle.

CONCEAL STOLEN HOSIERY.

Baffled Sleuths Suggest "Ankle Inspectors" for Big Mills.

Riverside, N. J., January 23.—Male sleuths who have endeavored to stop wholesale thefts of costly silk and lisle hosiery from the great Tangle Mills here have gone as far as they dare in their investigation and now suggest the employment of female watchers with power as ankle inspectors. Thousands of dollars worth of the best hosiery manufactured at the mills are stolen annually, and the company has put forth futile efforts to stop the costly drain.

Numerous arrests have been made, but the offenders say this move fails to deter the thieves. They declare that women employees are the worst offenders, as they are able to conceal the loot in the most natural way.

Mrs. Mary Scabedick, an employee of the Tangle Mills, was arrested yesterday charged with stealing stockings. Before Justice of the Peace Zeigler, at her hearing, it was charged that she concealed ten pairs upon her person, when she left the place in the evening.

MRS. BENNETT SAYS "PUBLISH"

Thinks Her Letter Made Public, Might Result in Some Good. All Ladies Should Read.

Henderson, Tex.—In a letter from this place Mrs. T. V. Bennett says: "Last November I was taken very sick and had two doctors. They doctor me for most everything that could be thought of, and at last they told me it would be necessary to have an operation. I couldn't give in to this, although I was suffering great pain.

Finally I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't used it but a short time before I was up, feeling good and able to do my work.

I am still getting along fine, and can recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to all suffering women. I shall always praise this great medicine.

If you think my experience would be of any benefit to any suffering woman you are at liberty to publish it."

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is strictly a woman's medicine, made up of pure, harmless vegetable ingredients which act directly on the womanly constitution.

It stimulates the weakened organs and helps build them up to health and strength.

We receive numerous letters every day similar to the one above. If it has benefited so many thousands of other women, why shouldn't it do the same for you?

Give Cardui a trial.

N. B.—Write to Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper.

Wedding Flowers

Of "guaranteed freshness" direct from our greenhouses. Cost no more. Phone for prices.

HAMMOND

Virginia's Largest Florist
Telephone Mad. 630

WEDDING BOARD MEETS.

Orders Increase of Room for Laboratory Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Kline College, executive board of trustees of Kline College held a business session last evening in the president's office. A large number of the new members of the board were present.

A movement is on foot in the town to have the local graded school turned into a practice school under the department of the state.

The school trustees at Kline College have reached a total of 30 in date, distributed as follows: Graduate department, 12; normal department, 17; collegiate department, 11.

THE ESCAPE MAY COST HIS PLACE

Sheriff Likely to Lose Job Because He Let Esther Harris Get Away.

Riverhead, L. I., January 23.—Acting on a petition presented by the farmers of Riverhead, Governor Sulzer ordered Melville E. Brush, sheriff of Suffolk County, to appear before him and show cause why he should not be removed for incompetency and neglect of duty.

The sheriff to-day by S. Mathewall, who came down from Albany with the sheriff, who said the papers in his pocket and remarked that he would fight.

That is just what he has been doing ever since Esther Harris, charged with burglary, escaped from the $20,000 Riverhead jail last December, taking all her baggage and leaving the doors nearly locked behind her. Following the escape, in which an automobile figured, the sheriff was made that other prisoners were allowed to spend their time taking in the country and that they should have been doing their duty.

Mr. Brush's friends say the whole thing was a mistake. A Republican and nobody gives a Republican any more. His job is worth about $5,000 a year to him, and he said he will fight to hold it, if only for principle.

CONCEAL STOLEN HOSIERY.

Baffled Sleuths Suggest "Ankle Inspectors" for Big Mills.

Riverside, N. J., January 23.—Male sleuths who have endeavored to stop wholesale thefts of costly silk and lisle hosiery from the great Tangle Mills here have gone as far as they dare in their investigation and now suggest the employment of female watchers with power as ankle inspectors. Thousands of dollars worth of the best hosiery manufactured at the mills are stolen annually, and the company has put forth futile efforts to stop the costly drain.

Numerous arrests have been made, but the offenders say this move fails to deter the thieves. They declare that women employees are the worst offenders, as they are able to conceal the loot in the most natural way.

Mrs. Mary Scabedick, an employee of the Tangle Mills, was arrested yesterday charged with stealing stockings. Before Justice of the Peace Zeigler, at her hearing, it was charged that she concealed ten pairs upon her person, when she left the place in the evening.

MRS. BENNETT SAYS "PUBLISH"

TO MAKE PROLONGED TOUR OF CONTINENT

German Prince Is Heir of Chief of Very Ancient Family.

BY LA MARQUE DE FONTENAY.
PRINCE WALDENBURG, who has just arrived from Europe in New York for the purpose of making a tour of the United States, Canada and Mexico, is unmarried, is twenty-six years of age, holds a commission in the German army, owns extensive estates in Roumania, comprising some valuable oil wells, and is a member of the German nobility.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.

It was this that enabled the chief of this very ancient family. It is a house which has been in possession of its title of Waldenburg for the principal seat since the beginning of the thirteenth century, formerly exercised petty sovereignty until the overthrow of the Holy Roman Empire, and still possesses the right of mating with royalty on a footing of perfect equality.